The proposal attached has a schematic diagram. I'm not sure if this reflects the as built construction or not. It is a fairly general layout diagram. I had trouble before copying it from the pdf file.

David,

Our prime contractor, ER, has provided a redacted copy of the proposal from their subcontractor Alexco. I recommend that you clear any public release of information with FOIA or Mike Boydston.

FYI, I am still waiting for contractor(ER) to provide a redacted copy of the rest of the subcontract.
